Occupation: Cohens drywall

Family: One daughter named Patience

Interests: Hanging with my daughter, fishing, the walking dead, music, movies, football

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I work alot to keep my daughter taken care of & to keep myself out of trouble lol. I live in Conway now & i own my own home. My most memorable life experience was the birth of my daughter. She kept her legs crossed the whole time so we weren't able to know if she was a boy or girl until she was born. I didn't care either way as long as it was healthy but deep inside I wanted daddy's little girl & she definitely is a daddy's girl.

Cynthia (Cindy) Zuraw Chadwick

Class of '94

Occupation: Reading Therapist

Family: I am married to Seth and we have 7 amazing kids!

Interests: Reading, camping, running, cooking and watching college basketball

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I guess a lot has changed for me since high school. It all started in college when I became a Christian and my world view went from very liberal to more conservative and based on God's word and not man's. I absolutely love being a mom! I never imagined that I would be the proud momma of 7 great kids but I wouldn't change it for the world! As a family, we love camping and we have camped at Huntington Beach State Park several times while visiting family. As a reading therapist and mother of a child with dyslexia, I am passionate about helping kids learn to read.
