Occupation: Research Psychologist

Family: Married to Ruth since May 1981. Two sons, both married, as of our 40th reunion

Interests: Travel; teaching; executive coaching; ancestry

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: 1. A steady theme throughout my life is teaching others. I tutored in junior high/HS. I taught in colleges for 25 years and have devoted substantial time to the professional development of my team and coworkers. While I have always found these activities deeply satisfying, I did not make a connection between them or recognize their value in understanding who I am until I completed a leadership development program where someone took the time to develop and mentor me. 2. I have a compelling need to always have a book to read, growing up with my Mom's credo that "books are your friends."

Occupation: Film Producer & Assistant Director

Family: Wife: Sally, Daughter: Kimberly, 30, Son-In-Law: Brett, 30, Son: Matthew, 28

Interests: Sailing, Cycling, Movies, Music, Reading, Philadelphia Eagles

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I am in a profession that I love. I get to make magic. Movie magic. Something that has excited me since Messrs. Thompson and Becker encouraged my photography on Concord's second floor. It hasn't been easy – some of the hardest challenges I've ever faced – but it's been worth it. I've collaborated with amazing artists, actors, and craftsmen on many incredible films: Dead Poets Society, A League of Their Own, The Sixth Sense, Doubt, among others. These films will live on far longer than any of us who contributed to them. It's also been a fun way to make a living and see the world.
