David Aberman

Class of '76

Occupation: Executive Assistant

Family: Husband: Dennis Step-sons: Dennis Jr., Rubin, Reginald, Quinton 6 grand-children

Interests: Movies, ridiculous-TV, gardening, happy hours, life, family & friends.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I've been fortunate enough to work at General Mills for 25 years and am now starting to plan for retirement. My husband and I hope to work on our bucket list, spend more time with family and friends, and enjoy all the blessings of life.

Occupation: HR & Recruitment Consulting

Family: Married to Carolyn Falk from St. Paul. 3 Kids, Michael-30, Alex-29, Maddie-25.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Being thankful that all the stupid things we did in High School didn't kill me.

Class of '76

Occupation: Still flying after all these years

Family: Wife : Susan (Olsen Class of '77), 25 years and counting.
No kids.

Interests: Travel (thanks to Susan), Tennis, Science, Music.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: My job has given me the opportunity to travel the world, and I have seen first hand the sights I only dreamed of seeing while watching TV as a kid. With my wife, and a small group of friends, I've been to all 7 continents, and some non-continents. While I frequently must be dragged back to the airport to get on another flight, once we set down, it's always a fascinating journey. I get one of the best office windows in the world, too. Special thanks to B.H., who got me started in the right direction.

Ruth Askegaard Kuroki

Class of '76

Occupation: Craft teacher Mpls Japanese School

Family: Husband-Kaz-semi retired, son-Kazuta, daughter-Mia, 2 naughty cats

Interests: Consuming Kaz's cooking, friends and family, nature, culture appreciation

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Met Kaz in art school, moved to his home country of Japan barely knowing a thing. There was much to learn. Got some survival tips from Meredith there & a ride on her motorcycle! The trains made a car unnecessary. Must have been the 'old days' since we relied on maps and kind people when we got lost. Used dictionaries for translation. After moving back, packed up the kids every summer for school in Tokyo where children clean their own classrooms & and serve the lunchtime meals. Saw some beautiful sights around the world. Looking for new challenges & hoping for peace & protection for our earth!

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I'm here to grow, evolve and give back to this Planet. My main vehicles have been transpersonal psychology and my career. In our H.S. psychology elective, I realized that everything we do or don't do is a result of our feelings and beliefs. Later I discovered that when we heal our wounds our Light from within emanates, and we can sense our interdependence with all. My Path became holistic, as physical, interpersonal, and Spiritual realms also impact our well-being.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: BS in Nursing from University of Kansas. After 5 years Pediatric Critical Care and Transport, took 1 year leave to live and study in Sweden. Came home, married my sweetheart Dave, had 3 daughters, and gradually phased out of nursing to home school our girls--best decision we ever made for our family. Thru life's journey, I have found that every day is a gift from God and I look for opportunities to give back by serving others, finding joy in life's discoveries, and hopefully giving grace to myself and others. As I told my girls, "Learning is not for school... but for life." I'm still learning

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: where do I begin? hmmmm.... hold it, that's the beginning of a song isn't it? after high school I went to Moorhead State University. I went there for 2 1/2 years, finding that college was not for me. I enrolled in vocational school and got a data entry certificate. I worked at an answering service for quite awhile and at Menards in Golden Valley. Being at Menards for 12 years decided to leave and go to Home Depot instead where I have been up until current day. I came out of the closet at 38 and have been looking for a partner since. I watch tv, read a lot, and facebook is my friend.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: After high school, I (mostly) played drums in bands and worked various jobs to pay the rent. In the mid '90's I played on six tracks on the Rembrandts' album, "LP", which sold over a million copies. I then moved to New York City for five years or so before moving to NE Ohio in 2001. I got sick shortly thereafter (that sucked), and then got well (that was better). I went to college for six years to get a Master's Degree in Social Work, then worked as a therapist, mostly with kids. I am now a custody evaluator at the Cuyahoga County Domestic Relations Court in Cleveland. Go Cavs!

Family: I met my wife Marianne after getting out of jail on my 30th birthday.

Interests: Motorcycling, bicycling, camping, boating, fishing, relaxing on my patio

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I turned down West Point, and academic, football and wrestling scholarships. I attended the U of M at age 35 on my own terms (graduated with a B.S. 1998). The years between high school and college were wild. Riding my Harley at the front of the pack as an ABATE of MN president was exhilarating. Getting pulled over by the cops was not. My wife convinced me to quit drinking and my outlaw ways (it's a work in progress). We are currently 33 years sober. I fished on the pro circuit a few years and bought a home near Tonka. Watching my kittens playing in the yard and gardens is a hoot!

Class of '76

Occupation: Soon to be retired! (nurse)

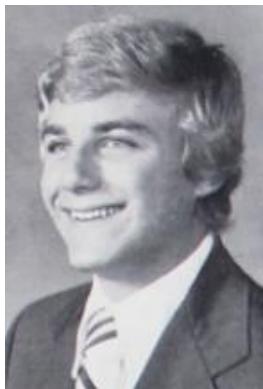

Family: Married to Gordy (almost 45 years!) Three kids and seven grandchildren

Interests: Reading, hiking, cabin/lake life, hanging out with family and friends

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Births of my children and grandchildren and the adoption of my daughter. Gordy and I love to travel abroad and experience other cultures. Also love to travel and see this country. Retirement bucket list is to visit all the National Parks! Gordy is retiring on January 5 from a company he has worked at for 46 years!! will be retiring from a "job" on June 30th. I gave up nursing a few years back when I became so frustrated with working short-staffed. Took a job with only a one mile commute, and am now working from home. I am blessed to have my children and grandchildren all live close by.

Timothy (Tim) Zuel

Class of '76

Occupation: Clinical Social Work

Family: Married to Bill Sternberg (class '77)

Interests: i seem to send a lot of time at the cabin...and apparently a lot of money.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: After undergrad (Bemidji) I ended up living and working in London till they kicked me out of the country. I went to Madison for grad school and return to Mn to work in child protection of the county. I continue my passion with most things up north in the woods, preferably on or near a lake. I write, read, teach, and volunteer for kids with trauma. Really grateful for all the friendships I have maintained, extended family and of course Sternberg.
