Liz Bussiere

Class of '76 lizbr58@gmail.com

Occupation: college professor

Family: My 1st husband died in '91; I remarried in '99. My dad was SHS principal '72-75.

Interests: reading, running, and watching gymnastics, diving, skating, & dance

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Moving to Scarsdale in 9th grade and being the principal's daughter were memorable. I remain grateful for my classmates' friendliness at that very self-conscious age as well as for SHS's educational quality. Looking back, I believe the latter laid the groundwork for my wanting to become an academic. Professionally, a high point was receiving tenure at UMass Boston, a vibrantly diverse public institution. Privately, a low point was the death of my first husband from cancer. But I am very fortunate to have crossed paths with and to have married a friend from graduate school, Dan Cohen.

Laird Cagan

Occupation: Finance in China

Andrew (Andy) Gans

Class of '76 agans@gansbrothers.com

Interests: Tibetan art, cooking, peaceful economic and social transformation.

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I live full-time in China, in the southern city of Shenzhen, and manage an investment banking and advisory firm I started here in 2007 called China First Capital. It's as much a labor of love as anything, a fulfillment of deeply-held ambition nurtured for at least 30 years. I was among first intake of American graduate students in China during early reform years. I grew up as a child totally and unaccountably fascinated by China. China can be a tough place to live, but I consider it a privilege to be here during a period of such monumental and largely positive change.

After working for 4 years in Philadelphia, and spending 1 year in Israel, I moved to northwest NJ where I lived and worked for 23 years. In August of 2014, I was offered a job at the only Reform synagogue in Montreal. I have been in Montreal for almost 2 years now. I love my job (as Rabbi-Educator), really enjoy the city, and find it fascinating to live in a completely bi-lingual city. Not to mention the fact that...with the 2016 presidential election looming, it makes me so happy to be able to say "I live in Canada."

Tracey Rogers Rogers

Class of '76 traceyrogersphd@gmail.com

Occupation: Psychologist and Professor of Psychology

Family: Partnered/Married to Jane, with 2 boys, Isaac and Jacob

Interests: Photography, reading, hiking (geez this is sounding like a personal ad!)

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: After college at University of Pennsylvania, I moved to Boston, and was a bit lost in terms of career. In my late 20's I got my Ph.D. in Psychology, and found my life partner. I have worked in a variety of community-based mental health and academic settings, and feel I have found my "home" at UMass Boston, teaching graduate students in a program committed to social justice within the field. Our two boys were a handful growing up, and we love them and love that they are now finding their own ways in life with two loving moms, many friends, and good heads on their shoulders!

Wendy Rosenblum Aronsson

Occupation: Television News Anchor

Family: Wife, Dana and 2 sons

Interests: Tennis, Photography, writing, family

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: wrote "Refeathering the Empty Nest"

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Career moves have taken me from Durham, NC, to Houston, Chicago, NY, Washington, DC and Philadelphia. Our two sons were born in Chicago and then raised primarily in NYC, where we've been based for 18 years. I've been fortunate enough to witness many significant events in history, both good and bad: From the Inauguration of President Obama, to the destruction of 9/11 and Hurricane Sandy, to the recent visit of Pope Francis to Philadelphia. But it's friends and family who make for equally memorable moments and they remain an important part of my life, despite all the geography I've covered

Occupation: Financial Consultant

Family: Single; no kids, one cat

Interests: Chelsea Rep Theater Company, Tutoring, Book Club

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: Bucknell BA (Econ & Poli Sci) & Wharton MBA. My career has been in banking and investments with a focus on risk management of derivatives and hedge funds. I spent the 80's and 90's working for large banks (Citi, Bankers Trust, Deutsche) then moved to the investments group of an insurance company. Since the financial crisis I've been helping Lehman Brothers wind down its derivatives portfolio. I live in NYC on the upper west side where I'm active in my church (Holy Trinity), an acting troupe (Chelsea Rep) and a weekly tutoring program.

Nicholas (Nick) Saccomano

Class of '76 nsaccomano@gmail.com

Occupation: Pharmaceutical Executive - Scientist

Family: Linda and I have four children, Sam, Margaret, Mike and Ben.

Interests: Biking, Piano, Fishing, Dogs and Family

Biography / Memorable Life Experiences: I took my Ph.D. in Chemistry at Columbia University. I spent 25 years at Pfizer in various positions including, most recently, SVP of research & technology. I was fortunate to work with teams that brought 3 new drugs to the market. Wanting to get myself and my family to the mountains of the American west, I left Pfizer to work in the drug formulation, manufacturing, life sciences and diagnostic industries until I entered my current role as CSO of Array BioPharma in Boulder. Gratitude, discipline, trust and persistence fuels us and the dreams we hold through our lives.
